30th Annual CARD Conference 2023

January 13-15, 2023

SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITY

For parents, caregivers and teachers of students with ASD and related disabilities through the UF Health Jacksonville Center for Autism and Related Disabilities (CARD) program

The 30th Annual CARD Conference will be held virtually this year. The conference will offer a series of breakout sessions and keynote presentations by experts in the field of autism and related disabilities. The purpose of the annual conference is to provide information on state-of-the-art practices in areas that promote quality community based life-styles for individuals with autism, deaf-blindness, and related disabilities. Conference participants will learn about current research findings and their implications as well as practical strategies related to communication and social interventions, transition to adulthood, positive behavior support, early intervention, and social and community inclusion.

For more information, visit the website: https://cardconference.info/
Registration is $80.75 for Family/Educators.

The UF Health - Jacksonville, Center for Autism and Related Disabilities is offering scholarships to parents and educators who would like to attend the 2023 Annual CARD Conference. Interested individuals should complete the attached application and follow the directions below. We are looking for individuals who can attend the conference and then bring back knowledge to share with others. All scholarship recipients will be asked to attend a virtual "Lunch and Learn" where they will present and share their experiences and knowledge gained from attending the conference. We have two "Lunch and Learn" sessions scheduled. One will take place on February 21 2023 and the other on March 21, 2023 from 12PM–1PM via Zoom. Please notate on the application which session you will be able to attend.

Application Procedure:
    1. Complete the attached application.
    2. Choose either February 21, 2023 or March 21, 2023, to attend a virtual Lunch and Learn to share your knowledge and experience.
    3. Mail, fax, or email the completed application to the address listed below. Please submit the application as soon as possible. The deadline to turn in applications will be 12/01/2022!
        Fax (Attention: Dianne Lampp): 904.633.0817
        Email to: Dianne Lampp: dianne.lampp@jax.ufl.edu
    4. Scholarship Applicants will be notified via email or phone.
    5. Preference will be given to those who have not previously received a CARD scholarship.
    6. Applicants who have been awarded a scholarship will need to register for the conference. You will need to create a UF Portal Account for reimbursement. Following the conference, you will need to submit your receipt and then you will be reimbursed by the University for the cost of your registration fee. Unfortunately, we cannot provide funds prior to the event nor reimburse for costs covering CEUs.
